

It's Never Too Late to Celebrate

MGA Political Science Constitution Day Trifecta

Three campuses were actively engaged to celebrate Constitution Day by G. Adams-Square

September 17 is Constitution Day and Citizenship Day. This day commemorates the September 17, 1787, signing of the United States Constitution. Each educational institution that receives Federal funds for a fiscal year is required to hold an educational program about the U.S. Constitution for its students on September 17 (if it falls on a weekend; it should be held in the previous or next week).

Students Celebrating Constitution Day on Cochran Campus

Under the direction of Mrs. Adams-Square, The American Government classes on the Cochran campus held two events on Monday, September 18, 2023. Both classes met outdoors at Georgia Hall during their normal class times. Students were placed in groups and instructed to design Constitution Day activities. The Constitution Day event on the Cochran campus was a success due to the collaboration and partnership of Ashley Thompson, Office of Campus Culture & Community Coordinator - Office of Campus Culture & Community, Mrs. Hope D. Fuqua-Duskin, Student Services Coordinator and Teresa Lorick Coordinator of Academic and Administrative Projects-Office of Academic Affairs. A festive event was created with balloons, cupcakes, music, friends, fun and games. Each student received a pocket Constitution Book thanks to Mrs. Thompson.
